

NINTH JUDICIAL ADMINISTRATIVE DISTRICT OFFICE OF DISPUTE RESOLUTION GUIDELINES FOR MEDIATION

STYLE OF CASE:		CIVIL ACTION FILE#	I FILE#
ADR RULES

Mediation is a non-adversarial process which is most effective if the parties involved work within the following guidelines:

- 1. The parties understand that the purpose of the mediation is to find a mutually acceptable resolution of the issues they bring to each session. The mediator will lead negotiations to assist in developing a settlement that is acceptable to the parties. The mediator does not make decisions for the parties.
- 2. For mediation to be successful, open and honest communication, negotiations and statements are essential. By signing this agreement, the parties agree to make complete and accurate disclosure of all matters relevant to the process of settlement. This includes providing each party and the mediator with all relevant information which would be available in the discovery process in a legal proceeding. If a party deliberately withholds information or supplies false information relevant to the settlement, then the agreement reached in mediation may be set aside.
- 3. Information gathered in the mediation process is confidential and privileged. All such communications by the parties shall be treated as strictly confidential by the mediator and the parties. The mediator will not disclose any information learned during the mediation without the express permission of the parties. Confidential matters disclosed in a private meeting or caucus with one party will not be divulged to the other party without the consent of the party making the disclosure.
- 4. In order to maintain confidentiality, the parties, by this agreement, agree not to call the mediator nor any member of the mediation staff or court designee to testify as a witness at any proceeding nor to subpoena or otherwise seek discovery of any written materials in his/her/their possession developed for or in the course of this mediation. To the extent that the law permits such discovery from the mediator, the mediation staff or court designee, the parties hereby waive their rights thereto.
- 5. Nothing in this agreement shall be construed to prevent or excuse the mediator from reporting such crimes, imminent threats of bodily injury or abuse to a child or a party, or such other matters as to which the law imposes a duty to report.
- 6. It is expressly understood by the parties that the mediator does not offer legal advice in this mediation and is not functioning as an attorney whether or not the mediator is in fact an attorney. In this mediation, the mediator's role is to aid the parties in seeking a fair agreement in accordance with their respective interests. The construction of a proposed agreement and any question of law should be referred by the parties to their own legal counsel. All parties are encouraged to have an independent attorney look over any completed agreements. A completed stipulation form will incorporate all issues agreed upon. All parties further agree that unless and until an agreement/memorandum of understanding is reduced to writing AND signed by all parties present, it is not final and binding on the parties.
- 7. The mediator is not liable for the results of the mediation. Any agreement written is the agreement of the parties to the mediation. The mediator in a court-annexed program shall not be held liable for civil
